Want some more info? Here you go:

This fall we will bring together a diverse set of stakeholders to learn more about how we can make sustainable (bio-based) textiles recycling a reality. Soex and i:Collect GmbH will share their perspective as a recycler. The startup Infinited Fiber will share its learnings and FullCycle will highlight key insights from the investment side. The Wuppertal Institut will deliver a deep dive into current research in the field, whereas the presentations will be topped off with the input by Adelphi on value chain partnerships for pre-consumer textile recycling. The day will be closed with a panel discussion on challenges for and solutions in textiles recycling.
